

Diane Danielson

November 9, 2001

Dear Dr. Stokes,

I am writing to ask that lethal dose testing be completely eliminated and replaced by non-animal methods. The LD tests are not only inhumane, they are unreliable. History has shown us time and again that results from animal tests cannot be accurately extrapolated to humans.

Thank you for your consideration of my views.

Sincerely,

Diane Danielson